

Agenda

Leading Locally, Learning Globally Seminar

“local and international communities share leadership knowledge, ideas and inspiration”

22 January 2021, 10.00am – 3.30pm

Welcome

Chris Leech, Community and Voluntary Sector Panel Member and Craigavon Area Foodbank

Keynote input

Lord Mayor Kevin Savage, Armagh City, Banbridge and Craigavon Borough Council

Pippa Coutts, Policy and Development Manager, Carnegie UK Trust

Morning Workshops Commencing at 1030

1. How to work with others to build a shared sense of purpose and foster commitment
Catherine Wanjohi, Life Bloom Services International, Kenya
2. Building respect and trust
Karin Eyben, Garvagh Peoples Forest
3. Strengthening collaborative working & collaborative decision making
Michelle Dunscombe, Firefoxes Australia
4. 'Influencing from the Ground Up – using community building to influence local government and institutions'
Rich Holmes, Matt Williams and Rae Bell, Gloucester Community Building Collective

BREAK

Afternoon Workshops Commencing at 1.00 pm

1. How to work with others to build a shared sense of purpose and foster commitment
Kerry Melville, Belfast Food Network
2. Building respect and trust
Kate Clifford, Rural Community Network NI
3. Communication for collaboration (externally with other agencies and communities)
David Quinney-Mee and Michael Cecil, Rathlin Community Development Association
4. 'How to influence for positive effect - "What works in civic engagement"
Claire Bynner, University of Glasgow

Participant led Plenary

1. What can WE (the CV sector) do to strengthen shared leadership and collaborative working across the Borough?
2. What is a key call to action that we can take away?

Close

