

TAK£500

YOUR COMMUNITY, YOUR VOICE, YOUR CHOICE!

So, what is Participatory Budgeting all about?

Tak£500 is a Participatory Budgeting initiative which means that local people get to decide how public funds are used to address needs in their area. Community Planning Partners have pooled their resources to fund community projects.

Local people aged 8 and above can apply for up to £500 for a project they think will benefit their area - and best of all, it is the local residents who decide which projects should go ahead!

How will my personal information be used?

Stage 1. Online Application Form

If you decide to apply for funding and use your personal contact details in the Stage 1 application form. This information will be stored in a safe place and used to contact you about the application. Your full name will not be used in publicity material and contact details will not be shared.

If you are under 18 and you decide to add your personal contact details to the form you must ask a parent/ guardian/ carer to complete the online consent.

Stage 2. Video

The video that you submit should include your first name only and the organisation you are submitting the application through. You should not include any other personal details.

Upon submission, the video will be uploaded to the website 23 November 2020. At this time, it is public and can be viewed by anyone who accesses the website. Please ensure that you are happy for the content of this video to be shared publicly.

Your views, ideas and proposal may appear in reports and press releases once that information is made public.

Voting Process

A small amount of personal information will be collected at voting stage. This information is needed to ensure that each individual only has one round of votes.

The information will include date of birth, email and postcode information. This information will not be assigned to your name or the votes which you make. It is collected for voting eligibility purposes only.
